

“Let your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, just as we hope in you.”
–Psalm 33:22

Introduction

- On Thursday, May 7th our nation will once again observe the National Day of Prayer. On that day, God’s people will gather together to bring their prayers and petitions, with thanksgiving, before Him (Philippians 4:6-7) In order to pray with real purpose and with dynamic power, we must begin by orienting our hearts toward the One who is able, not only to hear, but to answer our prayers.
- In Psalm 33:22, the Psalmist records for us this hopeful and confident expectancy: 22 Let your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, just as we hope in you.
- We will observe the National Day of Prayer here at Ebenezer during the following times: 6:30-7:00 am, 12:15-12:45 pm & 7:00-8:00 pm (childcare will be provided during the evening session)
- There is also an observance in Allentown 12:00-1:00, 7th St Monument Government Building, 17 South 7th St.

Promise I – If we ask, He hears us

Promise II – If He hears us, we know that we have
