

Wonder in the Womb

Text: Psalm 139:13-15; Luke 1:39-44

Proposition: The wonder in the womb should cause amazement and reverence because it is the one gift of God, which continues throughout all eternity.

1. The wonder in the womb is God's _____!

- Birth in the womb and death are only God's _____. (Job 1:21)
- Birth is the _____ of God into His own _____. (Job 31:15)

2. The wonder in the womb is not a _____ but a _____! (Luke 1)

3. The wonder in the womb is treated as a _____! (Luke 1)

- A person able to experience _____.
- A person able to be filled with the _____.

4. The wonder in the womb is the only thing in the universe, which lives _____!

5. The wonder in the womb should move us to _____!

- _____ to God's Word and shape our thinking.
- Stir your _____.
- _____ earnestly for an awakening.
- Support _____ to abortion.
- Use your democratic _____ of free speech.
- Spread the _____ with good literature.

Wonder in the Womb

Text: Psalm 139:13-15; Luke 1:39-44

Proposition: The wonder in the womb should cause amazement and reverence because it is the one gift of God, which continues throughout all eternity.

1. The wonder in the womb is God's _____!

- Birth in the womb and death are only God's _____. (Job 1:21)
- Birth is the _____ of God into His own _____. (Job 31:15)

2. The wonder in the womb is not a _____ but a _____! (Luke 1)

3. The wonder in the womb is treated as a _____! (Luke 1)

- A person able to experience _____.
- A person able to be filled with the _____.

4. The wonder in the womb is the only thing in the universe, which lives _____!

5. The wonder in the womb should move us to _____!

- _____ to God's Word and shape our thinking.
- Stir your _____.
- _____ earnestly for an awakening.
- Support _____ to abortion.
- Use your democratic _____ of free speech.
- Spread the _____ with good literature.