

Practicing the Presence of God

(Part 2 – The Omnipresence of God)

Text: Psalm 139:7-12

Proposition: When we understand that God is ever-present and all-seeing, pleasing Him will become our greatest desire!

Omnipresence – “God is present in every point of space with His _____ being.” (Systematic Theology, Berkof)

1. God’s presence fills the _____ above. (7-8a)
2. God’s presence is manifested in _____ below. (v. 8b, Rev 14:9)
3. God’s presence extends to the remotest _____ of the earth. (v. 9)
4. God’s presence permeates the _____. (11-12)

How then shall we live....:

- We ought to live with a great _____. (v. 10, Mt 28:20, Ps 27:10)
- We ought to repent of our “practical _____.” (Job 24:15, Heb 4:13)
- We ought to change the _____ of how we live.
 - Don’t go any _____ that you cannot ask God to go with you.
 - Don’t engage in any _____ to which you cannot ask God to bless you.
 - Don’t engage in any _____ to which you cannot return to God your thanks.
- We ought to strive for _____.

Practicing the Presence of God

(Part 2 – The Omnipresence of God)

Text: Psalm 139:7-12

Proposition: When we understand that God is ever-present and all-seeing, pleasing Him will become our greatest desire!

Omnipresence – “God is present in every point of space with His _____ being.” (Systematic Theology, Berkof)

5. God’s presence fills the _____ above. (7-8a)
6. God’s presence is manifested in _____ below. (v. 8b, Rev 14:9)
7. God’s presence extends to the remotest _____ of the earth. (v. 9)
8. God’s presence permeates the _____. (11-12)

How then shall we live....:

- We ought to live with a great _____. (v. 10, Mt 28:20, Ps 27:10)
- We ought to repent of our “practical _____.” (Job 24:15, Heb 4:13)
- We ought to change the _____ of how we live.
 - Don’t go any _____ that you cannot ask God to go with you.
 - Don’t engage in any _____ to which you cannot ask God to bless you.
 - Don’t engage in any _____ to which you cannot return to God your thanks.
- We ought to strive for _____.