The Matrix of Friendship

A friendly look at how to apply this idea to the people whom God causes to cross our paths.

Join other young adults for this weekend retreat as we discuss precursors, ideas, biblical patterns, & the ultimate figure of friendship from John 15.

Each session will begin with a time of praise & worship through music led by various young adults. There will also be a breakout session option to help you better understand the theme of the weekend.

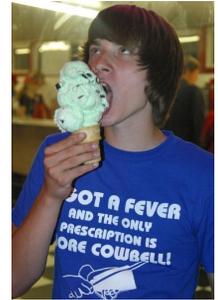

While at relaxing at Pinebrook, you can enjoy using the swimming pool, snack shop, hiking trails, or paintball course. There will also be various sports competitions including frisbee, volleyball, basketball, and more. Bring your whole college class or young adult group!

Friday Night Coffee House

Featuring the band Once Called Saul and open mic! You can sing, play an instrument, or do a skit! Bring a snack, drink, or dessert to share!
